Please email sports-related info, tips, and offers for families, coaches and players from Sports Illustrated Play.

By creating an account, I agree to Sports Illustrated Play's Terms of Use and Privacy Policy.

- It is highly recommended that you use the Add Adult feature for anyone who should receive email notifications from the website during the season. Other adults can be added later if necessary by changing "Account Settings".

FAMILY ACCOUNT

If you are creating this account for your Family and plan to register a child, you can add a second adult such as your Spouse, a Guardian or a Grandparent.

If you are creating this account to register yourself, you can skip this step.

Take the time to fill out these fields correctly - this will assist with contact information for your coaches and will ensure each adult receives the proper event reminders.

5. To add adult accounts later use the Account Settings option.
